What to do if your CBS ColecoVision™ Video Game or Adam Computer System requires attention.

If your CBS ColecoVision™ Video Game or Adam Computer System develops a fault you are assured of a fast, efficient, nationwide service facility which will restore your valuable equipment to first class working condition.

CBS Electronics have appointed Television Audio Maintenance Limited (TAM) as their recommended servicing agents for all CBS Electronics products. If your CBS ColecoVision™ Video Game or Adam Computer system develops a fault follow these instructions:

- 1) Identify your nearest TAM Service Centre from the addresses listed in this booklet.
- 2) Telephone your nearest TAM Service Centre to arrange a service call, or:
- 3) Take your CBS ColecoVision™ Video Game or Adam Computer System to the nearest TAM Service Centre.

Necessary repairs will be carried out quickly and efficiently and free of charge within the 12 month warranty period, provided that the faults have not been caused by misuse or failure to follow manufacturers instructions.

This special service has been set up to help our customers. Although its use is recommended this does not affect statutory rights to return a product to the place of purchase in the event of a fault developing.

N.B. This service does not apply to cartridges or digital data packs.

Why CBS Electronics recommend TAM for all servicing of CBS Electronics products.

TAM Techserve is part of a large independent group of companies with substantial technical and professional resources.

NATIONWIDE SERVICE:

TAM has 53 service centres throughout the United Kingdom. These centres are located within easy reach of most highly populated districts. In addition, TAM offer an in-home service facility if it is difficult or inconvenient to call at a TAM Service Centre.

IN DEPTH TECHNICAL KNOWLEDGE:

TAM's skilled and experienced engineers are qualified to the highest degree and are trained on an on-going basis to keep right up-to-date with new product ranges and the latest technological advances.

ADVANCED TECHNICAL FACILITIES:

TAM's sophisticated modern Service Centres contain a comprehensive range of test facilities that provide speedy diagnosis and fault rectification. TAM have at their fingertips, specialist test equipment for speedy fault detection and manufacturers test jigs to ensure that all repairs meet the strictest makers specifications.

AN EXCELLENT REPUTATION:

TAM provides a service for many of the biggest retail stores in the UK. The excellent reputation which TAM has earned in servicing high technology products has given CBS Electronics the confidence to appoint TAM as their recommended service agents for CBS ColecoVision<sup>TM</sup>.
