BLOCKADE RUNNER!

A great visual concept in video games—play by yourself or team with a friend to bring home to earth four ships loaded with vital supplies. Enemy aliens have blockaded your route, so you must flash through a mine-filled asteroid belt to avoid detection. You steer and shoot from your ship's nose-cone command post as the universe rushes past your eyes!

SEWER SAM!

One or two players compete to guide Sewer Sam through myriad mazes of danger-filled tunnels searching for... beep, beep... three enemy submarines that have invaded the city's sewer system. But watch out for subterranean dangers, as Sam dodges and shoots snakes, crocodiles, bats, rats, web-spinning spiders, and more! Enough to make even the stout-hearted shudder... as Sam searches through wet and dry tunnels for the ultimate showdown!
