Now your Colecovision™ can get maxi-action from Microfun™.

Before, only IBM™ and Apple™ owners could enjoy the maxi-action of Microfun™. If you had a Colecovision™, you were left out. No more! Here are four new games for Colecovision™ you can get only from Microfun™. Each game takes full advantage of Colecovision's™ features with full-color and full-resolution super graphics. The games you have been waiting for from the leader in computer assisted entertainment, Microfun™.

All the lights, bells, buzzers and flipper action of a heavy-weight arcade pin ball machine — right on your Colecovision. You've got to be faster than fast, or you won't last!

Bounty Bob's taken a fireman's job in the city to fund the chase for Yukon Yohan. Will you burn out Betty's poodle from the burning skyscraper? Or will you go down in flames in the collapsing stairways, crashing elevators and water hazards?

It's the legendary mounty, Bounty Bob! You've got to help him track ed uranium mine — all ten levels of it! — grabbing buried treasure and avoiding deadly radioactive mutants along the way. If you're a video gamer who likes challenge, Miner 2049ER™ is a gold mine.

You're racing against the clock and menacing aliens to build a space platform. As soon as you're done, there's another, different shaped platform to be built — and the aliens are still gobbling, the clock's still ticking! You can't beat it, but you can get better at it.
